

AROUND the TOWNSHIP

Niles residents need not worry about encroachment by the red menace when they see a red light being installed on the town flagpole. The sheriff's office has been given permission to put the signal there as a call light for its patrol cars.

Ed Enos said so many nice things about the senior chamber of commerce in his maiden speech before that body Monday that the members hardly recognized themselves.

Although building costs are up, local people who want homes of their own might as well consider duplex bungalows. The new factory at Niles plans to bring in 35 skilled laborers and their families and these people will have to have some place to live. There are no houses available at present for rental purposes.

It is difficult to find capital interested in building houses for rental rather than sale. The answer would seem to be duplex houses.

There is a good deal to be said for the anti-crime pictures which the Niles theatre is showing. Nothing brings home the sordid side of crime so much as actual photographs. Immature minds are all too inclined to dwell on the excitement which makes up the criminal's life. The government-released pictures show the other side.

Ott Hirsch says that if he had a number of acre-tracts with houses on them, he could do a land office business. He says that the long-heralded growth of this district as a country home center is under way.

A. J. Rathbone was taken to task Monday by the Niles Chamber of Commerce as to why he moved away. He replied that he thought he was giving the town a break.

The P. G. & E. knows that the putting trade, ever since the days of Ben Franklin, is the backbone of the nation. At least two of the boys in the construction crew which now makes its headquarters in Niles are ex-printers.

Two of Niles' buildings have received dress-up coats of paint recently. The building next to Rees's is now white with a tasteful brown trim.

Joe Ferry and his son Frank have been laying it on thick on Ferry's tonorial emporium. Although both buildings have been protected by signs, there are a few finger marks discernible.

In commenting on this, Pop Straub declared: "If a man reads that it is 93,000,000 miles to the sun he'll believe it; but when he sees a sign that says 'Wet Paint', he has to prove it to himself."

Phil Souza of the Sunrise bakery is wondering if there are no bakeries in Reno, Nev. The Sunrise received an order to ship one of its cakes there. Maybe it's the quality.

Womens' Club Leaders Gather For Reciprocity

CENTERVILLE—In a setting appropriately carried out with table and house decorations, the harvest luncheon held Tuesday as the annual reciprocity affair by the Country Club of Washington Township was attended by 130 women from Washington Township and 20 federated clubs of Alameda County. Mrs. C. E. Martenstein, president, presided and greetings were extended by Mrs. J. E. Taylor of Oakley, district president; and Mrs. Gerald Whitaker of Berkeley, county president. Honor guests were introduced with a clever rhyme for each by Mrs. Martenstein and were presented with favors, small jars of fruit, arranged by Mrs. Lawrence Bunting.

Deep red cockscomb and black grapes furnished the central motif of table and mantel decorations and on the stage was a wheelbarrow overflowing with fruit and vegetable products of the valley. The menu also included reminders of the harvest season, apple cider, crooked-neck squash and crimson apples, along with goodies. Corsages of fall flowers were presented to all present by Mrs. A. J. Pettsche, Mrs. W. L. McWhirter and Mrs. J. V. Good. The luncheon was prepared by Mrs. Roland Bendel, Mrs. E. H. Hirsch, Mrs. R. W. Emerson, Miss Flora McKeown, Mrs. M. Grimmer, Mrs. John M. E. E. Dias, and Mrs. J. H. Bunting.

ANTONE C. ROSE KILLED BY CAR

CENTERVILLE — Antone C. Rose, old-time farmer of this section, was killed when struck by a car driven by Edward King of Centerville as Rose was walking on the highway near his home on the Alvarado-Centerville Road Saturday night. After investigation by the sheriff's office and members of the State Highway Patrol, the accident was said to be unavoidable. In the car with King were his wife and two children. Rose succumbed at Dr. George H. Holman's office shortly after being taken there by the Chapel of the Palms ambulance. He suffered concussion of the brain and other injuries.

Funeral services were held Tuesday from the Chapel of the Palms with mass following at the Holy Ghost Church and interment at the Holy Ghost cemetery. The deceased was a native of the Azores, 70 years of age, and a resident here for the past 54 years. He was the father of Pete Rose, formerly Coast League baseball player and Mrs. Aldina Breibes of Centerville.

CUBS TO PICNIC WITH FAMILIES IN OAKLAND

NILES—All cubs and their families have been invited to attend a cub picnic Sunday in Oakland, says Dick Attinger, cub master. The affair will be held at Diamond camp. About 20 cubs are expected to attend.

DECOTO—Peter Figone (Ferraro) 48, was charged with murder in the Niles justice court Wednesday following a razor-slashing fray at the Alameda Vegetable and Produce Company on the Decoto Ranch road last Sunday night, when Giuseppe Gasparini was fatally wounded and three other men suffered cuts on the arms and bodies. Figone will appear Friday afternoon at Niles for a preliminary hearing and will be represented by Public Defender Willard Shea and Deputy Public Defender Raymond Ferraro. He is in the county jail awaiting trial.

Figone's capture by Grover and Fred Harndon special investigators for the sheriff's office, was a distinct anti-climax to the bloody fray which left the kitchen, porch and dining room of the ranch a gory shambles. Figone disappeared after the killing about 10 o'clock Sunday night and it was thought he was hiding in the thickets along the Alameda Creek. Bloodhounds, officers and photographers were being raced to the scene of the expected man-hunt, while other employees of the ranch gathered in an apprehensive group at the scene of the fatal slaying of Gasparini, 60-year-old cook and former buddy of Figone, while Mull and Harndon were collecting evidence in the building. Suddenly a neighboring farmer rushed into the yard with an exciting report that the hunted man was calmly walking down the highway a half mile away. Officers hurried to the spot escorted by the rancher and several men who could identify Figone and handcuffed the fugitive without incident. He was carrying a roll of blankets though he had disappeared the night before sans hat, coat or bedding. When asked how he got his blankets he replied he had returned during the night and collected his belongings.

From various reports the story of the wild night at the produce ranch seemed to be that while eight or ten men sat in the dining room talking, Figone is alleged to have entered and without obvious cause or reason begin a wild slashing about with an old-fashioned razor. Although he is only five feet-two inches, four men were slashed before Figone ran out. Bertolomeo Lagomarsino, 43, Mario Marania, 52; and Mario Campario, 51; were taken to the Hayward hospital where they were given first aid and Gasparini was taken to the Fairmont Hospital where he died the next morning. Marania was employed at the Niles Vegetable Garden across the highway and had come over for a friendly visit. Campario had been sleeping in the tank house quarters with Figone and after the fray had gone across to sleep with Marania, accounting for the fact that Figone had been able to reappear during the night without being seen.

The slain cook and his alleged slayer are reported to have been friends when they worked together at Colma recently. Gasparini arrived at the Decoto ranch on Aug. 22, while Figone obtained employment at the Alvarado Produce Co. a few miles away. There he worked for about six weeks, establishing the fact that he was a good worker but "nervous" at times and was said to have stated that he feared he was "going away from his mind". He had worked at the Bell Ranch Road establishment about two weeks.

ALVARADO CHAMBER DISCUSSES NEED FOR EMBLEMS

ALVARADO—Emblems to be used by members of the Chamber of Commerce were discussed at this week's meeting. C. W. Baird, president, had charge. The next meeting will be held on Monday October 11.

POST OFFICE STEPS UP NOTCH

NILES—Owing to the fact that receipts of the Niles postoffice have been bigger during the past year than ever before, the post office has been promoted to the second bracket in the Second class rating, says Postmaster Edward Enos.

Enos hope to put the office still higher in coming years.

Under terms of the postal regulations, the promotion requires an increase in all box rentals, ranging from 15 cents to 25 cents per quarter.

Lock box prices will range from 60 cents to $1.00 per quarter. This will mean an increase in postal receipts of about $200 per year.

HIGH SCHOOL QUILTS LEAGUE

CENTERVILLE — Announcement of withdrawal from the Southern Alameda County Athletic League and affiliation with the Santa Clara County League was made at Washington Union High School this week, negotiations for the change having been completed last Spring. Reasons given for the change are that there is a close contact of interest between the local students and those south of here than with Bay City schools at Emeryville, Berkeley and Albany. Traffic conditions between here and those schools also is a disadvantage in taking team there, much more so than in traveling to Santa Clara county, it is stated.

A desire to keep the big game of the year with Livermore has been expressed by the local high school and a meeting of representatives from there is being held this week. The opening game of the season is slated with Pleasanton for Sept. 24, at the local field.

Members of the new league to which Washington will belong are Santa Clara, Los Gatos, Mountain View, Sunnyvale, Gilroy and Cambyell. Santa Clara is the only team which has been played by Washington before. Members of the Southern Alameda County League in which Washington held the championship for three straight years prior to 1936, were Albany, Emeryville, School for the Deaf, Livermore, Pleasanton, and Washington. Albany has withdrawn to join with Berkeley, Richmond and Alameda, which would leave only four schools in the league. Hayward has not been in the league for several years. San Jose is not included in the Santa Clara League but plays with peninsular teams. Washington will play San Jose Technical High in basketball.

Parties from all over Southern Alameda County attend. Funds derived from this event are used in various ways for the children of the community.

THIEF TAKES FURNISHINGS FROM NILES CHURCH

NILES—Whether the thief was going to furnish a trailer or feather a nest in more permanent mode, he evidently knew something about housekeeping judging from the assortment of things he took from the kitchen of the Niles Congregational church. Maybe he was nearsighted and did not see the engraving on the silver. "Ladies' Guild," but anyway that led to the restoration of the bundle of articles dropped near the church sometime early last Sunday morning. The intruder entered through an unlocked door and left a trail of disorder and broken dishes, linen, silver and cooking utensils, all of which were restored to the church by Deputy Sheriff Henry Vervais.

SILVA DIES OF HURTS FROM SALT PLANT ACCIDENT

NEWARK—Antone R. Silva of the Niles-Alvarado Road passed away at the San Jose hospital Tuesday night following injuries in an accident at the Leslie Salt Plant about noon on Tuesday. No information could be gained from company officials but it is understood that a salt train went through an open switch and crashed into a track repair job where Silva was working with R. W. Swenson of Mt. Eden and Ed Thomas of Sunol. Silva had both legs broken, his nose broken and suffered internal injuries. He was rushed to the hospital in the Chapel of the Palms ambulance. Swenson is still in the hospital recovering from lacerations and other injuries. Thoma was treated by Dr. George Holman at his office in Centerville and returned home.

NILES— Definite action was urged toward the improvement of the Niles-Alvarado road by members of the Niles Chamber of commerce Monday at their first fall meeting.

The fact that, on completion of the east bayshore highway, the road will be more traveled and the danger of its high-crown construction for cars of modern speeds were cited as reasons for improvement. Chamber member are to take the matter up with Supervisor George Hellwig.

In the absence of the president, W. B. Kirk, C. W. Kraft presided. G. R. Fling of an Oakland electrical products company was present to discuss sign needed to direct traffic from the new highway to the main business section of Niles. A full report is to be made to Kraft this week and a committee will be appointed to act with the Junior Chamber of Commerce toward securing necessary signs.

Edward Enos, new postmaster, was introduced and made a short talk expressing a desire to cooperate with the Chamber of Commerce in any project for the good of the community. A. J. Rathbone, principal of the Washington Union High School, reported on the purchase of a new $6,000 school bus and the fact that all six buses used in transporting pupils had been painted yellow in keeping with State safety regulations. C. W. Kraft, E. A. Ellsworth and A. J. Petsche were appointed as a committee from the Chamber to extend greetings to J. J. Dempsey of the Pacific State Steel Corporation which has recently established a plant here.

Judge J. A. Silva made a motion which was carried that permission be granted the sheriff's office to install a police buzzer on top of the flag pole. The sum of $25 was set aside for paying for raising and lowering of the flag at proper times.

MISSION SCHOOL RECONSTRUCTION PLEASES STUDENTS

The $11,000 improvement program will be completed within the month. A new auditorium has been arranged on the first floor, the first time the school has had an assembly room. A stage and a kitchen adjoin. This room will be used for public meetings, a gymnasium and a winter-time playground for girls. The five acres of playground now include tennis and basketball courts, three baseball diamonds, a front lawn and gardens. The entire building has been made earthquake proof and has been repainted.

POOR EXHIBIT

Dr. Durham's comment regarding the Alameda county exhibit at the state fair constitutes a serious charge. Although we did not see the state fair, we do know that this section of Alameda county, rich in potentialities, is considered backward in many ways by outsiders.

There is not enough local pride. A county fair is badly needed here. A good county fair would do much to stimulate interest and would help in making a better display at the state exhibit.

BLACK AGAIN

There is little to do about Associate Justice Hugo Black now.

It appears that Black, in spite of denials, is a member of the Ku Klux Klan and that he cannot fulfill his oath to the Klan and his duty to the Constitution at the same time. These discoveries come too late. Black is a member of the Supreme Court now and will be until he dies, resigns or is removed for bad behavior while in office.

His record must be watched.

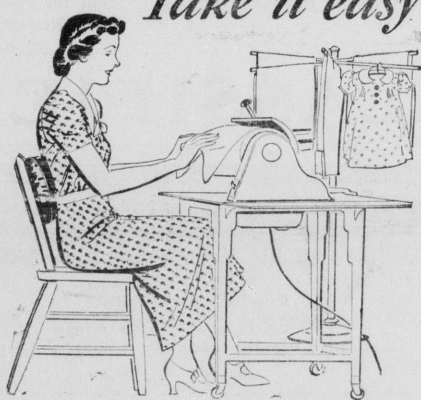

STAY OUT

The United States should stay out of any war that requires the sending of expeditionary forces to foreign lands. This should be the policy even if it means destruction of much of our present foreign trade.

Foreign trade in war time has little value: witness the unpaid bills hanging over from the last war. As wars are now fought, no one wins them.

SIT DOWN...

Take it easy!

...Finish the job with a NEW ELECTRIC IRONER

Ladies, be seated in a comfortable, relaxed position and do your ironing easier, better, and in one-half to one-third the usual time with a new Electric Ironer.

Easy to operate... yes. A new electric ironer gives you Simplified Ironing. Practice on a few places will give you all the skill that is needed to turn out beautiful ironing.

Hand-ironing is strenuous back breaking work. The woman who stands and hand-irons a big family wash lifts over 6,000 pounds every week... three tons with one hand and arm.

Save your health and strength. Save time. Save clothes. And, remember, you can "machine iron" a big wash for about six cents for electricity.

Take the "irk" from laundry work. Get a new electric ironer and change ironing "day" to "minutes". Ask your dealer to demonstrate an electric ironer for you. Save money. Use the coupon below and buy your electric ironer today.

BRICKBATS

IRVINGTON, CALIF.

SEPT. 13, 1937

Dear Editor:

A brickbat now and then is enjoyed by the best of men providing it is thrown at the other fellow. I have been interested in hearing of the prizes won by the various individual exhibitions from Alameda county at our recent state fair. I believe every prize was won on its merits.

It was my pleasure to visit the fair. Had I been a stranger, however, in the state, and was there to make a choice of residence and invest my money by what I saw on exhibition, I would have chosen any other county by preference to Alameda.

The floral display by the California Nursery was a delight to the eye and was given proper recognition. The wine exhibit was as artistic as an artist could make it. Both received proper and well-deserved prizes.

Is that all? Let's see—I almost forgot.

The few blocks of salt which were anything but artistically arranged. It looked like they were just pushed over in a corner outside of the regular exhibit section to hide them from view.

It was my pleasure to meet the manager of one of the northern county exhibits. On learning I was from Alameda county, his first question was: "What's the matter with Alameda county?"

"Nothing", was my reply.

"Don't you have anything down there but flowers and wine?"

(I called his attention to the salt)

"Sure", I said. "We have Oakland in one end of the county and the Lions club in the other"

I made him admit that no first class funeral could be staged without flowers. Of course, a wedding is different.

As for wine, he agreed that his county would have to go to Alameda county for their banquet wine. Neither did he know that salt is often recommended after a painless extraction.

Very emphatically I stated that if the Lions Club of Washington Township was putting on the exhibit, it would give the people of the state something to talk about. For goodness sake, let them handle it in the future.

After our joking ceased, and since the gentleman had raised the question concerning the Alameda county exhibit, I asked him point blank what is the consensus of opinion of those with whom you have talked?

"Your exhibit is a disappointment and surely does not represent adequately the industries and resources and advantages of your county"

DECOTO—Alvin B. Johnson, master of Victory Lodge No. 471, San Francisco, scored a big hit with the home folks, Sunday afternoon, by the staging of a one-act playlet entitled "Allison Lad." It was produced by the Scottish Rite Players of the San Francisco bodies, A. and A. S. R. The place was the village of Farington, in the western midlands of England and the period was the close of the second civil war in the autumn of 1648. To lovers of the spoken drama the playlet was of special interest and the performance was highly creditable to the participants.

As a prelude a dance specialty was presented by Goldyne Zimet, followed by a baritone solo by Marion Vecke, with accompaniment by George Anderson, organist for the annual communications of the grand lodge. Printed programs were provided. At the close, Johnson introduced the players and the man under whose direction the playlet was staged, Edvar Malcolm Cameron. It was one of the best entertainments of many months. A large number of the lodge members and their families enjoyed a basket picnic luncheon early in the afternoon.

FASTER GROWING COVER CROP

In line with the widespread program for soil conservation many of California's progressive farmers are turning to Fenugreek for their winter cover crop. It is one of the world's oldest known cover crops—was used by the early Greeks. Only recently has it been used in this country. The College of Agriculture of the University of California at Davis is now using Fenugreek as the principal soil building cover crop for late fall and winter planting.

Fenugreek is a legume growing from two to three feet in height and bearing numerous leaves similar to clover. It makes a lush rank growth and produces an exceptionally heavy yield of green manure which, when plowed under, decays rapidly. The various fertilizing elements that have gone into the making of the crop are returned to the soil together with a quantity of organic matter not previously in the soil. This organic matter serves as food for micro-organisms and improves the physical condition of the soil. Growers who have used Fenugreek report that successive crops are easier and cheaper to cultivate.

Most other legumes will fail to germinate unless they are seeded in the early fall while the soil is still warm. Fenugreek can be planted any time in the fall or early winter without pre-irrigation. It will germinate under the same conditions as small grain, relying on winter rains for moisture. Not only is it cheaper to plant because pre-irrigation is unnecessary, but considerable labor is saved in planting. The land can be disced either one way or both ways, and the seed planted by broadcast or by drill. This reduction in the amount of soil preparation, together with no pre-irrigation material, reduces the cost of planting.

Fenugreek is the fastest growing winter cover crop particularly for Northern California. It will grow to a full stand during the cold winter months, and be ready to be plowed under in the spring in time to plant beets, vegetables, beans, grain or any normal annual crop. Fenugreek is very effective in breaking up hard and tight soils. The root system is extremely strong and penetrates to a depth of two to three feet. The hardest and tightest soil is broken into small particles, facilitating the entrance of air and moisture. Heavy clay and adobe soil are lightened and made more porous, and sandy soils are enabled to hold moisture better. It has been found that the roots of Fenugreek excel other cover crops in the accumulation of nodules of nitrogen, an important element which must be restored to the soil.
